Who We Are

In the second decade of our business, Rayeneh-daran Consulting Engineers (RCE) developed its activities in trade of the chemicals and interaction with international markets. RCE, now is well-known as a reliable source for supplying raw and strategic materials in oil and gas industries, refining, petrochemicals and mining.

We have started our work to produce chemicals by founding a knowledge based company for producing precious metal compounds. Our next step in the beginning of our third decade of work, will be toward an export oriented business including production of chemicals and industrial recycling with foreign investment.

Continuous endeavor, innovation and responsibility, along with our organizational values of quality and honesty have always been the reasons of our success. Being by your side as a strategic partner, and realization of win-win policy in joint projects, is the most prestigious aim we have ever achieved; we are proud of this.
